To Advertisers.

Advertisers are requested to hand in changes for their advertisements not later than 9:30 a.m. on the day they wish them inserted. We desire that our advertising columns be kept fresh and bright, as we know, as to be one of the great secrets of success in advertising, and for this reason we give our patrons frequent changes, but we must insist on the observance of the above rule, as we cannot handle our regular complement of news when crowded with other matter in the middle of the day.

Mrs. H. S. Kellogg will leave to-night for Texas.

Thad Watson, of Rudolphtown, is in the city to-day.

H. N. Leech and family have returned from Charlotte.

Will Smith, of Paducah, is at home in New Providence spending the holidays.

Miss Lillie Johnson, of Clarksville, is visiting the Misses Schott, on Ewing avenue.—Banner.

Jo. Byrnes, of Nashville, arrived in the city this morning to visit Mrs. Lizzie Elliott, Fifth street.

Miss Broadhurst, of Louisville, daughter of Rev. W. A. Broadhurst, is the guest of Mrs. H. E. Beach, Jr.

J. F. Bradley, of Pleasant View, passed through the city yesterday en route to the south side to visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gill have returned home from Fulton, Ky., where they spent a week visiting relatives.

Clarence J. Beverly, of Paducah, who has been spending the holidays with Clarksville friends, will leave to-night for Orange, Texas, on a visit to relatives.

The New Capitol published at Ocala, Fla., has this mention of a popular Clarksville young lady. The EXAM-CHRONICLE wants it understood that Miss Janie Homer is a Clarksville girl, and not from Nashville: "Miss Homer, of Weir Park, a dashing Nashville, Tenn., belle, was in the city Friday and will be a guest of the Ariel club at the hop next week."

THE SOCIAL REALM.

Miss Corinne Northington Receives Her Friends.

Several Notable Social Events Briefly Chronicled—A Holiday German in the Knights of Pythias' Building.

Of all the social gatherings of the holidays, none perhaps excelled a reception tendered some of her friends last night by Miss Corinne Northington at her father's residence on Madison street. There were eighteen couples present, and it was a more than pleasant occasion. The reception lasted from eight to twelve o'clock, and a very elegant supper was served. The tables were handsomely arrayed with substantial and delicate, and the guests feasted themselves to their hearts' content. The event is described by those present as being one of the most pleasant of the season.

Miss Clara Bringham entertained a number of her friends last night in elegant style, at the Franklin House. There were a dozen couples present and refreshments were served at an appropriate hour. Miss Clara has received many compliments to-day on the excellent manner in which she entertained her friends.

A surprise party dropped in on Miss Gertrude Couts last night in the shape of a dozen or more couples of young people. They were handsomely entertained by Mrs. W. E. Beach and Miss Gertrude.

The German at the German Club's rooms last night is described by those who attended as the most pleasant event of the kind that has yet been given by the club. There were many couples present and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

Following is a list of those present:

Miss Byers and C. K. Barnes, Miss Rosa Drane and M. R. Smith, Miss Burden, (Mo.), and Elmore Trabern, Miss Gill and Will Porter, Miss Green and Alex Payne, Miss Howell and Archie Howell, Miss Stacker and J. E. Ellis, Miss Whitfield and Merton Turnley, Miss Willis and Fenton Williams, Miss O'Brien and P. A. Cowan, Miss Maria Perkins and Mr. C. L. Lockert, Miss Prewitt and Howell Graham, Miss Wood and J. G. Cooper.

Rovers—Messrs. Murray Brown, Boyl Johnson, Howard Pettus, Gus Henry, Ronney Bardwell, Rufus Fort, Ed. Meriwether, Will Payne, Percy Smith, Chas. Cooke and John Beach.

Chaperons—Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Elder, Mr. and Mrs. Balch, Miss Madge Graham, Mrs. Hugh Drane, Mrs. M. B. Johnson and Mr. Walter Drane.

A half dozen couples or more went from the city last night out to J. W. Pollard's to a party. They report a pleasant trip.

Miss Lady Cunningham will entertain her young friends at her father's residence on the Hopkinsville turnpike to-night. A large crowd will attend from the city.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Owen & Moore.

Taking it Back Home.

The household furniture of the late Preston Johnson was to-day taken back to the farm near Hampton's Station. Mr. Johnson, it will be remembered, had rented the Shaw cottage on Greenwood avenue and was moving to it the day he was stricken down. Mrs. Johnson prefers, now that her husband is dead, to reside at the old home, consequently the furniture was taken back. It will be gratifying to the friends of Mrs. Johnson to know that her husband had his life insured for $5,000 in a company represented here by W. A. Settle, and that she will receive that amount as soon as the necessary forms of law can be gone through with.

S. B. Durfee, mate of steamer, Arizona, had his foot badly jammed Thomas' Electric Oil cured it. Nothing equal to it for a quick pain reliever. For sale by Tudhope Drug Co.

The Sam Jones Meeting.

Says the Hopkinsville Independent: "The Sam Jones meeting will be inaugurated Sunday. The continued interest manifest in the coming of Mr. Jones is unparalleled and it seems to be the prevalent opinion that this city, after Mr. Jones cleans it of its impurities, will be an earthly paradise. We hope, and confidently believe, that Mr. Jones will accomplish much good."

Police Circles Quiet.

Police circles have been unusually quiet this Christmas, the police having very little to do. There was no court at all to-day.

Lost—Pair opera glasses and case between opera-house stairs and Elder's buggy repository. Initials K. P. on front cross-bar. Return to Lew Wagner and be rewarded.

IN COURT CIRCLES.

Circuit Court Convened Monday Morning.

A Very Full Docket With Many Railroad Cases—Other Court News of Interest.

The court-house is a very quiet building now, but it promises to be more lively next week. Circuit court meets Monday and the docket is an unusually full one. There are many divorce suits on the docket, beside quite a number of important railroad cases. Some of them are as follows: Wilmoth vs. the L. & N. railroad company, H. P. Davis against the same, Dr. S. A. Marable against the same, B. L. Rice, administrator of Wm. Nubie, against the same, and others which are not remembered at present.

In addition to these cases the suit of Quarles against the city of Clarksville will be tried. This is a suit for damages growing out of the caving of a sewer bank near the intersection of College and Second street while Stewart & Quinn were constructing the sewer system. It will be remembered that there were many accidents of this kind and that a laborer or two was killed, being caught under the falling dirt. Gen. W. A. Quarles qualified as administrator of the men and is suing the city for damages. Col. Thos. L. Yancy is the attorney in the suit.

TAKING DEPOSITIONS.

The attorneys are still engaged taking depositions in the suit of Mundy, McTighe & Co. against the Louisville & Nashville railroad company. This suit was filed a year ago by the plaintiffs in the Chancery court here. It is for about $85,000, and is now pending in the Federal court. It will likely be decided at the April term of this court at Nashville. Leech & Savage are the attorneys for Mundy, McTighe & Co.

CRIMINAL COURT.

There will be no more Criminal court until the fourth Monday in January, when the court will convene subject to adjournment. Several murder cases are to be tried by this term.

From Newberg.

C. F. Moore & Co., prominent druggist of Newberg, Ore., says: "Since our customers have become acquainted with the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, we sell but little of any other kind. Chamberlain's medicines all give good satisfaction." For sale by Owen & Moore.

FUNERAL SERVICES.

The Last Duty Paid the Ashes of Mrs. Thompson and Preston Johnson.

Quite a crowd of people went out to the funeral and interment of W. P. Johnson yesterday. The service was a very impressive one and great sorrow was manifested on all sides at the tragic death of Mr. Johnson. The people in that country had known and admired him all his life and a large crowd attended his burial. He was interred in the Killebrew burying ground, near St. Bethlehem.

The Baptist church was crowded this morning by a sorrowful congregation to hear the funeral sermon over the remains of Mrs. O. D. Thompson. The sermon was preached by the pastor of the church, Rev. A. U. Boone, and it was a very touching discourse. After the sermon the remains were followed to Greenwood by a large number of friends and relatives and were deposited in their long resting place. There is general sorrow over the death of this lady, whom all who knew, knew but to love.

A Cure for Croup.

If your children are subject to croup, always keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy at hand. It is a prompt and certain cure. If given as soon as the croupy cough appears it will prevent the attack. For sale by Owen & Moore.

Price of Water Raised.

The Clarksville Water Company has raised water rates to livery stables, factories and a few other special businesses. The raise has created a very vigorous kick from those affected by it.

An Invaluable Remedy for Colds.

Sheriff Hardman, of Tyler Co., W. Va., was almost prostrated with a cold when he began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. In speaking of it he says: "It gave me almost instant relief. I find it to be an invaluable remedy for colds." For sale by Owen & Moore.

A Cleveland Rooster.

Jno. K. Smith, who has not yet got over his rejoicing on account of Democracy's recent victory, was showing a very fine Cleveland rooster on the streets to-day.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Lighthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Treacot are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter four years old. Last April she was taken down with the Measles, followed with a dreadful Cough and turning into a Fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "bundle of bones."—Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at Owen & Moore's.

THEY WERE REPRIEVED

Because the Governor Was Against Holiday Hangings.

Special to the Leaf-Chronicle.—ANNAPOLIS, Md., Dec. 30.—This was the day originally set for the hanging of the eight men found guilty of the murder of Dr. J. H. Hill, of Kent county, Md. Owing to the objection of the Governor of executions during the holidays the men have been reprieved to January 13th.

Notice.

For the next few days I will be away from the city, but have made arrangements with Dr. T. A. Whitfield to attend to my practice during my absence. Dr. Whitfield will be at my office every day from 1 till 4 o'clock p. m. and will answer all calls. Respectfully, DR. C. G. WILSON.
